Video Marketing for Business

with special guest Sara May from True Nature Media

Sara will be discussing best practices for making engaging video content, what your audience is looking for, and how to get more comfortable in front of the camera.

Sara May is a videographer, photographer, and musician from Orangeville. Since 2013, she has used her education in filmmaking to create video and photo content centered around her passions: supporting local food producers, highlighting up-and-coming artists and musicians, showcasing hardworking entrepreneurs, and more!

New Member Spotlight

Art of 8 Martial Arts Academy

Chances are, even if you haven't had the pleasure of meeting Martello and Janeque in person yet, you've caught a glimpse of one of their awesome videos on social media! We're excited to welcome them and hear more about how video content is helping them to stay connected with their community.

Theatre Orangeville Update with David Nairn

David will provide an update on Theatre Orangeville's exciting plans for the return to live in-person performances this summer as well as a sneak-peak at what is in store this coming fall!
